

House Resolution No. 2106

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives occasionally pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri residents as James D. Boggs at momentous times in their lives and careers; and

Whereas, James Boggs will receive a Congenial Counselor Award from the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association at that organization's 34th Annual Bench-Bar & Boardroom Conference, which will be held from May 3 to May 5, 2007, at centrally located Tan-Tar-A Resort at Lake of the Ozarks; and

Whereas, a native of Kansas City, James Boggs prepared for his chosen field of endeavor by earning a Bachelor's degree from the University of Missouri-Columbia and graduating from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Law School; and

Whereas, James Boggs was an associate with Witt and Schafer in Platte City and a partner with Don Witt before opening his own firm in Platte County and then forming Boggs Law Firm with his son, Christian Boggs in 2007; and

Whereas, James Boggs is devoted to trial practice, with a primary focus on personal injury and domestic relations, and is a member of the Missouri Association of Trial Attorneys Board, Missouri Bar Board of Governors, Missouri Supreme Court Civil Rules Committee, and 6th Judicial Circuit Committee:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of James Boggs for the Congenial Counselor Award from the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association and to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to James D. Boggs.
